2. National location of principal office

The principal office of the Centre is England

4. Powers

The Centre has power to do anything which is calculated to further its objects or is conducive or incidental to doing so. In particular, the Centre's powers include power to:

- (1) borrow money and to charge the whole or any part of its property as security for the repayment of the money borrowed. The Centre will comply as appropriate with sections 124 and 125 of the Charities Act 2011 if it wishes to mortgage land;

- (4) employ and remunerate such staff as are necessary for carrying out the work of the Centre. The Centre may employ or remunerate a charity trustee only to the extent that it is permitted to do so by clause 6 (Benefits and payments to charity trustees and connected persons) and provided it complies with the conditions of those clauses;
- (5) deposit or invest funds, employ a professional fund-manager, and arrange for the investments or other property of the Centre to be held in the name of a nominee, in the same manner and subject to the same conditions as the trustees of a trust are permitted to do by the Trustee Act 2000;
- (6) obtain, collect and receive money and funds by way of contribution, donations, legacies, grants and other lawful methods and accept and receive gifts of property of any description (whether subject to any special trusts or not).

5. Application of income and property

- (1) The income and property of the Centre must be applied solely towards the promotion of the objects.
 - (a) A charity trustee is entitled to be reimbursed from the property of the Centre or may pay out of such property reasonable expenses properly incurred by him or her when acting on behalf of the Centre.
 - (b) A charity trustee may benefit from trustee indemnity insurance cover purchased at the Centre's expense in accordance with, and subject to the conditions in, section 189 of the Charities Act 2011.
- (2) None of the income or property of the Centre may be paid or transferred directly or indirectly by way of dividend, bonus or otherwise by way of profit to any member of the Centre. This does not prevent a member who is not also a charity trustee receiving:
 - (a) a benefit from the Centre as a beneficiary of the Centre;
 - (b) reasonable and proper remuneration for any goods or services supplied to the Centre.
- (3) Nothing in this clause shall prevent a charity trustee or connected person receiving any benefit or payment which is authorised by Clause 6.

6. Benefits and payments to charity trustees and connected persons

(1) General provisions

No charity trustee or connected person may:

- (a) buy or receive any goods or services from the Centre on terms preferential to those applicable to members of the public;
- (b) sell goods, services, or any interest in land to the Centre;
- (c) be employed by, or receive any remuneration from, the Centre;
- (d) receive any other financial benefit from the Centre;

unless the payment or benefit is permitted by sub-clause (2) of this clause, or authorised by the court or the prior written consent of the Charity Commission ("the Commission") has been obtained. In this clause, a "financial benefit" means a benefit, direct or indirect, which is either money or has a monetary value.

(2) Scope and powers permitting trustees' or connected persons' benefits

- (a) A charity trustee or connected person may receive a benefit from the Centre as a beneficiary of the Centre provided that a majority of the trustees do not benefit in this way.
- (b) A charity trustee or connected person may enter into a contract for the supply of services, or of goods that are supplied in connection with the provision of services, to the Centre where that is permitted in accordance with, and subject to the conditions in, section 185 to 188 of the Charities Act 2011.
- (c) Subject to sub-clause (3) of this clause a charity trustee or connected person may provide the Centre with goods that are not supplied in connection with services provided to the Centre by the charity trustee or connected person.
- (d) A charity trustee or connected person may receive interest on money lent to the Centre at a reasonable and proper rate which must be not more than the Bank of England bank rate (also known as the base rate).
- (e) A charity trustee or connected person may receive rent for premises let by the trustee or connected person to the Centre. The amount of the rent and the other terms of the lease must be reasonable and proper. The charity trustee concerned must withdraw from any meeting at which such a proposal or the rent or other terms of the lease are under discussion.

- (f) A charity trustee or connected person may take part in the normal trading and fundraising activities of the Centre on the same terms as members of the public.

(3) Payment for supply of goods only – controls

The Centre and its charity trustees may only rely upon the authority provided by sub-clause (2)(c) of this clause if each of the following conditions is satisfied:

- (a) The amount or maximum amount of the payment for the goods is set out in a written agreement between the Centre and the charity trustee or connected person supplying the goods (“the supplier”).
 - (b) The amount or maximum amount of the payment for the goods does not exceed what is reasonable in the circumstances for the supply of the goods in question.
 - (c) The other charity trustees are satisfied that it is in the best interests of the Centre to contract with the supplier rather than with someone who is not a charity trustee or connected person. In reaching that decision the charity trustees must balance the advantage of contracting with a charity trustee or connected person against the disadvantages of doing so.
 - (d) The supplier is absent from the part of any meeting at which there is discussion of the proposal to enter into a contract or arrangement with him or her or it with regard to the supply of goods to the Centre.
 - (e) The supplier does not vote on any such matter and is not to be counted when calculating whether a quorum of charity trustees is present at the meeting.
 - (f) The reason for their decision is recorded by the charity trustees in the minute book.
 - (g) A majority of the charity trustees then in office are not in receipt of remuneration or payments authorised by clause 6.
- (4) In sub-clauses (2) and (3) of this clause:
- (a) “the Centre” includes any company in which the Centre:
 - (i) holds more than 50% of the shares; or
 - (ii) controls more than 50% of the voting rights attached to the shares; or
 - (iii) has the right to appoint one or more directors to the board of the company;
 - (b) “connected person” includes any person within the definition set out in clause [30] (Interpretation);

7. Conflicts of interest and conflicts of loyalty

A charity trustee must:

- (1) declare the nature and extent of any interest, direct or indirect, which he or she has in a proposed transaction or arrangement with the Centre or in any transaction or arrangement entered into by the Centre which has not previously been declared; and
- (2) absent himself or herself from any discussions of the charity trustees in which it is possible that a conflict of interest will arise between his or her duty to act solely in the interests of the Centre and any personal interest (including but not limited to any financial interest).

Any charity trustee absenting himself or herself from any discussions in accordance with this clause must not vote or be counted as part of the quorum in any decision of the charity trustees on the matter.

8. Liability of members to contribute to the assets of the Centre if it is wound up

If the Centre is wound up, the members of the Centre have no liability to contribute to its assets and no personal responsibility for settling its debts and liabilities.

9. Membership of the Centre

Membership of the Centre cannot be transferred to anyone else.

(4) Termination of membership

(a) Membership of the Centre comes to an end if:

- (i) the member dies, or, in the case of an organisation (or the representative of an organisation) that organisation ceases to exist; or
- (ii) the member sends a notice of resignation to the charity trustees; or
- (iv) the charity trustees decide that it is in the best interests of the Centre that the member in question should be removed from membership, and pass a resolution to that effect.

- (b) Other references in this constitution to "members" and "membership" do not apply to non-voting members, and non-voting members do not qualify as members for any purpose under the Charities Acts, General Regulations or Dissolution Regulations.

10. Members' decisions

(1) General provisions

Except for those decisions that must be taken in a particular way as indicated in sub-clause (4) of this clause, decisions of the members of the Centre may be taken either by vote at a general meeting as provided in sub-clause (2) of this clause or by written resolution as provided in sub-clause (3) of this clause.
