The Imperial war museum is dedicated to recording the impact of modern conflicts on individuals and societies and to educate visitors about the realities of war. The museum provides a sobering space where visitors can reflect on the causes and consequences of conflict, as well as the personal stories of those who lived through those times. Each visitor will have their own views on both the complex and tragic nature of armed conflicts. However, the aim of the IWM is to promote understanding, remembrance and education, not to glorify war. Café facilities available or bring a packed lunch. (This trip requires a minimum of 8 people)
