Wednesday 15th Pick-up from 10.45am Return at 4.00pm

We journey first to Hillier Garden Centre in Lechlade for lunch in their Mulberry & Thyme Restaurant. We then go on Buscot Park, family home of Lord Faringdon who continues to care for the property and the Faringdon art collection displayed there. The gardens have beautiful herbaceous borders, walled gardens and a water feature. Despite the grandeur of both house and gardens they remain intimate and very much a family home. A small tearoom will complete the afternoon visit.
