The schools are back and the crowds have gone, so now is the time for a visit one of the UK's sunniest towns. With award-winning beaches, a Victorian pier, a long and level promenade, and a good range of shops, restaurants, and cafes, it promises a varied day's visit. The main shopping area is in the pedestrian-only precinct on London Road and the adjacent High Street with both independent shops and popular chain stores. The Edwardian Shopping Arcade takes you through to the seafront and beach. If you have the time, there is also a 20-acre park at the end of the High Street. This trip will be weather-dependent. We will need a fair weather forecast on the Monday to confirm the trip.
