Orchid Festival at Kew Gardens – £10 (Free admission)

Tuesday 26th Pick-up at 10.00am Return at 3.30pm

Escape the dreary winter at Kew's annual festival of orchids. This year the theme is Columbia, the world's most bio-diverse country with over 4000 species of orchids alone. The flagship display is a carnival of animals including a toucan in flight, a hanging sloth, a swimming turtle and a life-sized jaguar. With a surprise around every corner you will spot hundreds of colourful butterflies suspended from a glass ceiling and a floating display depicting the legend of El Dorado. Plus, the many other attractions Kew has to offer.
