

ADVANCE NOTICE

There will be a FISH Minibus trip to The Watermill Theatre (near Newbury) on Thursday 6th June

for a matinee performance of

The Importance of Being Earnest

'You are the most earnest looking person I ever saw in my life'

Jack Worthing lives a double life between his idyllic manor in the country and his stylish town house in the capital. To those who know Jack in the countryside, he is the epitome of respectfulness, devoted to providing a sound upbringing for his ward Cecily and often rushing into London to look after his wayward brother Ernest. To those who Jack entertains in the city, he is known as Ernest: an indulgent bachelor who loves nothing more than doing nothing, often accompanied by his mischievous friend Algernon. It is a secret to nearly everyone that Ernest doesn't actually exist! Discovered as a baby in a handbag in the lost property cloakroom at Victoria Station, Jack's identity has always been an enigma. When a marriage proposal sets a sequence of ridiculous events in motion, Jack's past threatens to catch up with him. Oscar Wilde's trademark wit and masterful storytelling are at the heart of this hilarious comedy of manners about misbehaving in a manor.

The theatre seats booked are in the stalls. The cost of the trip including theatre ticket and bus fare (but not lunch) is £28.00

All bookings must be made in advance at the FISH Office with full payment by cash or cheque (made payable to FISH Volunteer Centre) by:

Friday 8th March

The FISH bus will depart from the Village Hall at 11.45am and arrive at the theatre in time for lunch in the Restaurant and Bar before the performance.

Please note: This trip requires a minimum of 10 people and if this number is not achieved by the closing date of 8th March then all monies received will be refunded in full.
